REVERIFICATION - MOCKERY BY BHARATIA

- ☉ The RSA Rules were notified in 1993.
- ☉ BPEF Unions accepted the RSA Rules.
- ☉ FNPO sought some amendments in RSA Rules such as concept of Federation should continue and union has right to collect donations from members.
- ☉ The Govt. agreed to amend the RSA Rules to incorporate our requirements.
- ☉ In 1995 the first verification was carried out. FNPO and BPEF participated. NFPE went to court.
- ☉ FNPO secured required percentage.
- ☉ BPEF unions had a poor show.
- ☉ The Department of Posts sent a proposal to DOPT to recognise FNPO affiliated unions.
- ☉ Subsequently NFPE also agreed to participate.
- ☉ Again reverification was ordered All the affiliated unions of the three Federations participated in the verification process.
- ☉ Recognition was granted to first two unions viz., NFPE & FNPO; Bharathiya was not recognised.
- ☉ BPEF played games by going to court which granted ex-parte stay.

- ☉ FNPO and NFPE impleaded in the case along with the Govt. and vacated the stay.
- ☉ The verification results were declared and the two Federations were recognized.
- ☉ BPEF has lost its recognition.
- ☉ In the last two decades, BPEF could not get double-digit figures.
- ☉ It was clear to BPEF that they cannot secure necessary percentage and get recognition.
- ☉ BPEF started negative action to create problems for the recognised unions.
- ☉ Even now they are not keeping quiet. They go on filing the cases in the different courts with the hope of sabotaging the verification and recognition. They have not succeeded so far; they shall not succeed in future also.
- ☉ The scenerio is very clear. Verification will take place and two eligible unions including FNPO will be recognised.
- ☉ Bharathiya will again fail and perform an hat-trick.
- ☉ Time is short. Expose the game of BPEF. Educate the members to opt for FNPO unions and make the reverifi cation a grand success for our Federation.

POSTAL PRIVATIZATION IS A "BAD IDEA", SAYS OBAMA

During a recent Q & A session at the white house, President Obama mentioned that privatization "is a bad idea most of the time".

He explained that private postal operators would only focus on the most beneficial segments of the market and that "those companies would not want to provide universal service".

INTERNATIONAL SCENE

BELGIAN UNIONS DEMONSTRATE AGAINST CONTINUED JOB CUTS INCLUDING DHL

On Friday, the 29th of January, the three biggest Belgian Trade Union confederations organized a demonstration in Brussels to send a strong signal to the Ministers of employment in Europe. It was a manifestation to ensure employment and social justice in Belgium even in times of the financial crisis. Inymedia, an independent news platform in the internet, reports about 36,000 participants.

(<http://www.indymedia-letzebuerg.net/index.php?option=comcontent&task=view&id=42599&Itemid=27>)

More than 250 DHL employees also joined the "march for jobs and respect". For them it was important to send their message of keeping the DHL EUHQ in Belgium and saving the 880 jobs that are affected by DHL's proposed changes. Even managers showed their solidarity with the employees and encouraged them to join the manifestation or participated themselves. Even though the Belgian unions, presented an alternative plan to rescue the DHL EUHQ, DHL management have rejected the plan and 880 jobs are to be lost. The company said the decision was made simply for convenience and will not produce any cost savings. Fewer than 5 percent of workers said they could relocate to the new facilities. DHL is also refusing to negotiate the severance packages with the union and says it will only engage individually with workers, a move which will likely mean that many workers will receive much less than they would if the union represented them.

"The company has shown no regard for 880 working families in Belgium who will see one of their earners out of a job in the coming year", said Neil Anderson, head of UNI Post and Logistics. "This is a devastating blow for hundreds of workers who may not be able to find work in this difficult environment." UNI P & L says the management should question itself about what are its real priorities. If this is not a cost cutting move, then why would they take such a step that will destroy more than 800 jobs and the lives of several hundred people.

THE ENDLESS RAGE OF DEUTSCHE POST DHL - NOW FRANCE

In November 2009, the DHL management announced the selling of the domestic express network in France for some 200m Euros to an investment Fund. The question is, what about the future of the 3,500 employees? Although the French Trade Unions had prepared an alternative business plan based on saving the domestic business plan, the company rejected all Union proposals. The French Trade Unions say the normal procedure of such investment funds is the same; buying, restructuring and getting the most profit out of it, regardless of the consequences for workers. UNI P & L is against the selling of the domestic express network in France and is disappointed that the DHL management wasn't prepared to listen about alternatives and solutions. UNI P & L demands fair and open negotiations between the French Trade Unions and both managements, DHL and Caravelle Investment Funds, to find solutions to protect the workers.

THE UK ALSO AFFECTED BY THE DEUTSCHE POST DHL RESTRUCTURING PLAN

4,700 employees based mainly in Heathrow are seeing their company sold to HDN a private equity fund owned by the infamous Barclay Brothers. It is not clear yet whether or not this transfer will lead to job-losses. For the new owner it is also a strategic step to generate more pressure on Royal Mail and become a stronger competitor in the UK parcel market.

The EWC in Deutsche Post DHL has already reacted and called on the management to open an information and consultation process for the cases in Belgium, France and the UK. It is obvious that the restructuring measures taken within this short period are following a major plan decided in the Deutsche Post DHL headquarter in Bonn. The members of the EWC have demanded to be informed and consulted about this plan and the next steps in Europe.

NORWAY POST : 30% REDUCTION IN EMISSIONS BY 2015

Postkom thinks it must be made the priority of priorities and concrete measures and action plans to achieve the goal should be taken. Postkom looks positively at the fact that corporate management has selected a high level of ambition for emission reductions. I am glad about this strong commitment and that this is congruent with Postkoms principles 2008-2011 and 2010 work programs", said union secretary Bjorg Vatnedalen. It is important that Postkoms representatives now take hold of the challenges at the local level, eg. Eco certification, waste management and energy conservation," said Vatnedalen.

REPLY TO FNPO BY THE DEPARTMENT OF POSTS

No. 8-02/2009-WL. & Sports Dated 5-3-2010

Sub : Non grant of appointment under Sports
Quota in Tamil Nadu Circle

Sir,

I am directed to refer to your letter No. Sports/36/2010 dated 22-2-2010 on the above mentioned subject.

The case is still being examined in consultation with Tamil Nadu Circle. Final reply will be sent to the Federation in due course.

Yours faithfully,

(SUBHASH CHANDER),
Director (Welfare & Sports)

No. 5-1/2007-WS-I Dated March 2010

Sub : Irregular fixation of TRCA of Branch
Postmasters/EDSPMSs

I am directed to refer to your letter No. GDS/GDSC-Feb. 10 dated 20-2-2010 on the above subject.

2. At the out set, One-man committee has recommended five slabs for Branch postmasters. Of the above, slab 2, 4 and 3 are new slabs and 1 and 3 are replacement slabs for the existing Branch postmasters, with a work load upto 75 points and more than 75 points as on 1-1-2006. This replacement scale was clearly indicated in para 2.2 of the order dt. 9-310-2009. Therefore the denial of higher slabs does not arise at all. The question of fixation in higher slabs does not arise, as they are not replacement scales and have prospective effect only. It was further stated that, the fixation of TRCA has to be done on work load on 1-1-2006. However certain circles have expressed doubts on fixation of Time Related Continuity Allowance of Gramin Dak Sevaks Branch Postmasters on applicability of new slabs, it necessitated the Directorate to issue a clarification on 10-12-2009 for uniform adaptation. This was adopted uniformly except in Kerala circle, where there were some excess fixations due to wrong interpretations of the orders by divisional heads without consulting the concerned.

2. In regard to implementation of new norm for cash handling, you may be aware that, this was in vogue for more than 50 years, and it did not undergo any change even though treasury norms were revised for departmental officials several time. The GDS Committee suggested to the department for conducting a work study on this, and based on the report of IWSU on this item alone, and also keeping the recommendation of GDS Committee, other factors like depreciation in the value of rupee etc, the Department took a conscious decision to effect this after implementation of One-Man Committee recommendations of TRCA etc. The revised norm has thus prospective effect and it cannot be applied for the fixation of TRCA already done based on the work load as on 1-1-2006. this was made clear to all those, who expressed such an apprehension. The Department has not issued any orders for calculating the work load on this norm for fixation of TRCA as on 1-1-2006. In other words, the norm will be applicable for reviews/revision of allowances that take place from 15-12-2009 only. To make it further clear, the BPM on first slab can get his allowance revised to second slab, if the work load in point system exceeds 75 points and for such review, this will be adopted.

3. The internal work study unit has conducted another study for evolving revised norms and for prescribing new norms for certain items of work of Branch Postmasters, and the report is still under examination in consultation with Integrated Finance Wing. When you sought a copy of the report of that report under RTI Act 2005, a reply was provided to this effect, and it is your misappreciation, that, this report relates to Cash handling Norm. Even these norms when approved will be given prospective effect only.

The revised cash handling norm would not also reduce the allowances of the BPMs, since there is a concept of protection of their allowances, in the even of reduction in the work load. The cash handling norm recommended by IWSU and examined in consultation with Integrated Finance Wing and approved by the Competent authority cannot be withdrawn. Continuance of the old norm prescribed some five decades back, which is very liberal and providing increased benefits based on such liberal norm cannot go hand in hand and you have to appreciate that the department look a conscious decision for its implementation with prospective effect. It is hoped that, this will allay your unwarranted apprehensions on this issue.
