APPEAL

With reference to notice no. PJCA/United movement/ 2025 dated 11.02.2025 regarding phase wise agitational programme from 14.02.2025, you may appreciate that the various demands of the Service Associations and GDS Associations have always been considered and addressed by the Department positively from time to time. Regular periodical meetings with the Service Associations have been held in the Department for the past few years. Apart from the periodical meetings, various divisions of the Department also hold meetings with the Service Association on their issues from time to time.

2. The Department has been considering all your justified demands in the past and is ready to consider all your legitimate demands in future also. The Department is going through a phase of transformation and welfare of the staff is a major component in this transformation exercise and any kind of agitation / strike at this juncture shall be detrimental for the growth of the Department.

3. Therefore, you are requested to withdraw the proposed phase wise agitational program immediately in the interest of the Country and the Department,

(Jagdeep Gupta) 19/2/2025
